HELLO GARDENERS!

The recent heat might not feel like fall weather, but the classic New England season is just around the corner. Now’s the time to keep your garden tidy by pulling out spent plants as you take in the last of the harvest, and set aside some kitchen time to preserve your favorite crops.

Time has been called and the Romanesco Queen is even now preparing for her crown. Who won our competition? Join us at Growing Places’ annual event, the Backyard Bash, on September 6th here at the Doyle Center in Leominster to find out! We’ll not only be crowning the Romanesco Queen, but we’ll have live local music, delicious local food, and a fabulous garden-themed raffle. Visit growingplaces.org for details and tickets! We hope to see you there!
